

Board Approved Vision Statement

The Museum of Bus Transportation aspires to become the nation 's premier bus museum dedicated to preserving, and publically displaying buses of historical significance. Our desire is to create an Educational Resource Center which will include the complete time-line of the industry and the sponsorship of bus-related events and activities.